Phone: 501-354-9475

Dates: July 5 – 8, 2011 9 AM – 4 PM

Registration fee: $1,250.00

Course Description - This 30-hour session is designed to support new and emerging teachers (within their first three years) and lateral entry teachers as they develop effective teaching practices and prepare for instruction. Participating teachers attend four 6-hour sessions with an additional 6 hours of independent study and application in their own educational setting.

Goals - During this interactive session, teachers will develop the pedagogical skills and understandings necessary for student success. Participants will explore current research and educational trends, and experience instruction that models best practices. As they engage in collaborative activities and discussions, they will begin to cultivate the skills and dispositions essential for success in the education profession.

NTI Course Objectives

- Defining teacher roles and responsibilities
- Understanding curriculum standards
- Creating short and long range instructional plans
- Utilizing proactive classroom management techniques
- Implementing research-based instructional strategies
- Developing a learning-focused classroom culture
- Applying organization and time management strategies
- Collaborating with the school community
- Becoming a reflective practitioner

QTL New Teacher Institute (NTI)

The New Teacher Institute will be held at the River Valley Technical Center on Highway 132 in Morrilton.

Directions: From Interstate 40 - Take Exit 107. Go South on Highway 95 toward Morrilton. Love's Truck Stop is on your left. Just past Love's, turn left on Highway 132 (Farmers and Merchants Bank at the intersection) and go about a third of a mile.

You will see a building on your left with garage type doors. The sign in front reads RVTC. Enter there at the second driveway. You will be on the Southeast corner. The entrance is on the east side of the building.

There will be signs on the door to direct you.

NOTE: There is no sign on Highway 95 that identifies the road as University Blvd. If you are using a gps, you might enter the intersection of highways 247 and 132 as your location.
